

Simchat Torah

The day following Sukkot is called Simchat Torah. Simchat Torah is a day of tremendous joy. On this day we...

- ~ Dance with the Torah scrolls in Shul until late in the night
- ~ Complete the yearly cycle of reading the Torah and start reading again from the beginning
- ~ Celebrate our love for Torah and our excitement to begin studying and reading the Torah again

